Choose ONE of the following novels and READ it over the summer:

- The Lord of the Flies by William Golding
- The House of Mango Street by Sandra Cisneros
- Long Way Down by Jason Reynolds

While reading, consider the following questions. While you are not required to write out answers for them, understanding these questions will help you with the assessment of the reading when school starts in September:

1. Who is the protagonist and with what conflict must he or she contend?

2. What goals does the protagonist strive for? What obstacles stand in the way of the protagonist achieving these goals?

3. How do the people around the protagonist help him or her develop a moral compass? (Either positive influences or negative influences)
